P R E F A C E.

THE Utility of an Accurate Description of the Roads; is so obvious to every Person who travels, as not to require any laboured Proof; and, as the Preference which the following Work claims before any other of the Kind hitherto published, will be evident on the slightest Comparison, we shall decline enlarging on that Head, and only lay before the Reader what is just necessary by Way of Explanation.

By the Plan adopted in executing this Work, it contains all the New Roads down to the present Time, with the Alterations and Improvements made in the Old; and exhibits at first View, the Distance of each City, Town, or remarkable Village from London, with a particular Account of the Roads leading to it, measured from the different Standards in London, according to the Mile Stones on each Road, and arranged in the following Order, viz.

1. The Kent Roads measured from London Bridge.
2. The Croydon, Ryegate, and Epsom Roads, from Westminster Bridge.
3. The Kingston Road, from the Stones End in the Borough.
4. The Brentford Road, from Hyde Park Corner.
5. The Uxbridge and Edgware Roads, from Tyburn Turnpike.
6. The Barnet Road, from Hicks's Hall.
7. The Ware Road, from Shoreditch Church.
8. The Essex Road, from Whitechapel Church.

The

The Measurements, which are taken in Miles, Halves, and Quarters of Miles, are arranged in two Columns, the first giving the Distance from one City, Town, or Village to the next; the second, the Number of Miles from the Commencement of the Road. And (for the farther Amusement of the Traveller) at the End of each Road is given, a brief Account of whatever is worthy of Observation, such as Parks, Seats, Castles, Ruins, &c.

To find the Road from London to any City, Town, or remarkable Village in England or Wales, look for the Name of the Place in the Index to the Roads from London, and the Figure opposite to it, refers to the Page in which is that Part of the Road, containing the Place looked for; thus, from London to Durham, the Index directs you to Page 105, where you find Durham with its Distance from London, &c. though the Description of the Road in which it is situated (being that from London to Edinburgh) begins in Page 103, and ends in Page 106.

In describing the lesser Roads branching out from the greater, the last remarkable Place on the great Road, or the Spot where the lesser turns off, is first given, with a Reference to the Page in which you will find the Road so far as to that Place; and afterwards the Branch is continued: as for Instance, to find the Road from London to Chertsey in Surry, the Index refers you to Page 32, where you find it in the following Form; viz.

To Hounslow, p. 19
Feltham,	Midd.	3 $\frac{1}{4}$	13 $\frac{1}{4}$
Littleton		3 $\frac{3}{4}$	17
Chertsey,	Surry	3	20

By which it appears you are referred to Page 19 for this Road as far as Hounslow, (the last remarkable Place on the great Road) from thence the Remainder of the Road to Chertsey is given after the above Form in Page 32, as directed by the Index. In like Manner for the Roads from London to Southampton, the Index directs to Page 30, from whence you are referred to Page 29 for one Road as far as Alresford, and to Page 28 for another as far as Winchester, the Continuation of each Road being given in Page 30.— These References are made Use of in order to prevent the numberless Repetitions which otherwise would unavoidably occur in a Work of this Kind,

In looking for the Cross Roads, or Roads in Scotland, recourse must likewise be had to their respective Indexes, which are so plain as to require no farther Explanation than what is given with them in their proper Places.

Having thus, to the best of our Abilities, supplied the Traveller with a full and accurate Description of a much greater Collection of Roads than was ever before attempted; yet, as the different Routs which Travellers may have Occasion to take are almost infinite, and consequently not comprisable in a Volume of this Size; we have, in order to complete our Plan, compiled, and published separately, a Second Part to this Work, entitled, A TRAVELLING DICTIONARY; or, Alphabetical Tables of the Distances of all the Cities; Borough, Market, and Sea Port Towns in Great Britain from each other, &c. By these Tables, the Traveller will find the Compass he must make to visit any Place or Places which he may be desirous of taking in the Course of his Journey; and will likewise be enabled at setting out to form an Estimate of his Time and Expence, by ascertaining the Number of Miles he must travel, with the greatest Exactness, should the Tour he proposes to make, be ever so much about, or irregular. Those who have experienced how varying, and often contradictory, have been the best Accounts they could procure of the Distances of Places on their Journey, and how how vexatious in their Consequences, will readily acknowledge the Utility of a Work of this Kind.

The Travelling Dictionary being of the same Size with the Description of the Roads, the two bound together make a compleat Travelling Companion.

The Distances from the Obelisk in Fleet Street to those Places in London, from which the different Roads are measured.

The Publisher returns his most grateful Acknowledgments to those Gentlemen who communicated the Corrections and Additions with which this Edition is improved; and as a Work of this Kind must be ever subject to Alterations from the New Roads continually making, any Improvements or Corrections for another Edition, that are transmitted to T. Carnan, at N° 65, in St. Paul's Church Yard, will be duly attended to, and carefully inserted.

GREAT AND DIRECT ROADS

Measured from LONDON-BRIDGE :

With the ROADS branching from them to Market and Sea-Port TOWNS.

The Towns printed in CAPITALS are Cities. Those printed in Italicks are Post-Towns. The Letters R. or L. shew you are to keep to the Right or Left in going to the Town to which they are prefixed.

The First Column is the Distance from one Town to another.
The Second Column is the Distance from LONDON.

THE DIRECT AND PRINCIPAL CROSS ROADS OF SCOTLAND.

The great Communications between England and Scotland are Four; videlicet, by Berwick, Coldstream, Kelfo, and Carlisle.

The different Roads from London to Edinburgh are given from Page 103 to Page 110; and as the Measurement of the other direct Roads through Scotland, is mostly taken from Edinburgh, a Traveller may easily connect his Route in North Britain, with that he has already taken, whether he enters the Country by Carlisle, Kelfo, Coldstream, or Berwick.
